

A Message from the Fort Worth Police Officers Association

January 6, 2010

It is once again time to honor a member of the Fort Worth Police Department with the Fort Worth Police Officers Association "Hank Nava Officer of the Year Award".

The purpose of this award is to honor and recognize members of the Fort Worth Police Department for service to the outstanding police work, service to the community, and most importantly, outstanding service on behalf of the men and women of the Fort Worth Police Officers Association.

The FWPOA is requesting officers to submit nominations of officers for this to Kevin Foster by email to "kevin.foster@fortworthgov.org" by January 26, 2010. Please be sure to list the reasons for the nomination either in the body of the email or by attachment. Please be specific.

The award will be given at the noon February membership meeting on February 11, 2010.
